Monday, February 26
at 12 p.m.

Join your CCV friends for our Annual Meeting and Potluck Lunch with entertainment by Danny Britt! We will open with lunch (fried chicken and beverages provided), have a short meeting celebrating CCV's successes and announcing the 2023 Volunteer of the Year.

Several community organizations and preferred service providers will be available to give you information and answer your questions. We will also kick off our Amplify Austin effort and explain how you can get involved. At the end of our meeting we will hold a drawing for door prizes! We can't wait to see you there!

Third Wednesday BYOL
St. Matthew's Episcopal Church
Sanctuary Basement Room B-18/19
Wednesday, February 21
at 12 p.m.

In February, CCV will host Jordan Bleeker of Westminster Manor at our Third Wednesday Bring Your Own Lunch gathering. Jordan is the Director of Sales and Marketing at Westminster. She has worked at Westminster for nearly 10 years and is an expert in their “Life Plan” model of senior living. This is the second presentation in CCV's four part series on senior living. You can find more information on this series and RSVP here.

Latest News

A big welcome to the three new members who were recently voted onto the Capital City Village Board of Directors, Sandra Frellsen, Michele Aynesworth and Clark Ross. The board is an all volunteer group of individuals dedicated to helping seniors in Austin "age in place," led by the current Board Chair, Mart Hoffman. Learn more about them and all of the Board Members here. Want to get more involved with CCV? Email info@capitalcityvillage.org to serve on a Committee!

Watch Past CCV Programs

Did you miss seeing Claudia Knowles present her collection of hooked mats? A truly interesting and emotional personal history. What about the Oasis Senior Advisors presentation on senior living options around Austin?

Thankfully, many of our programs are recorded and uploaded to our YouTube Channel and the CCV website for you to watch later!

In Memory

Ed Farrell

Ed Farrell, Phd., died peacefully on January 13th at Brookdale, Northwest. Ed, and his wife, Jo Ann, were both active and loyal members of CCV. Ed was also an inspirational member of the 9:30 Monday Morning Coffee Group organized by Arnie Orange. He will be sorely missed by the Group. Please keep Ed and his family in your thoughts and prayers.
